Well we've finally finished

TORCH

Acton-Boxborough Regional High School

Acton, Massachusetts

1975

The Class of 1975 would like to dedicate this year's book to Mrs. Jane Starr, and Mr. Frank Calore, for their endless help.

*"It is hard to say Thank-you: to someone who already knows it.
Perhaps it is better to say
We love you.
For the times,
good and bad.
The understandings,
and the mis-
And for being there when they were needed, and when they were not—To make life and love more than words—but meanings."*

. . . Pause for a moment while memories swiftly pass through the mind . . .

Life
is only a shadow without another to see it a drifting non-entity frozen in Nothingness.
But
suspended within a mind it becomes an ageless monolith unyielding against a turbulent universe.

. . . Here in reflections our lives are in front of us-to be seen by ourselves and others-to be contemplated-discussed-and somewhat explained-to the satisfaction of yourself, to the mystery of others-

When we finally come to this point, past and future merge, decisions, struggles and finally,
answers are found.

In the back of my mind, I observe The workings of things past and present;
But not for me the future holds A great and wonderful life.
For I am not worthy of such great tide,
To rock in and out by the shore;
And I will know by the time I die,
What great wonders I still hold.

. . . John Plunkett

I look into the water and see myself
Who am I?
Where am I going?
All that I know is that which is behind me.
All that I can hope for is that which is ahead of me.
Be my friend,
And together, let's be on our way.

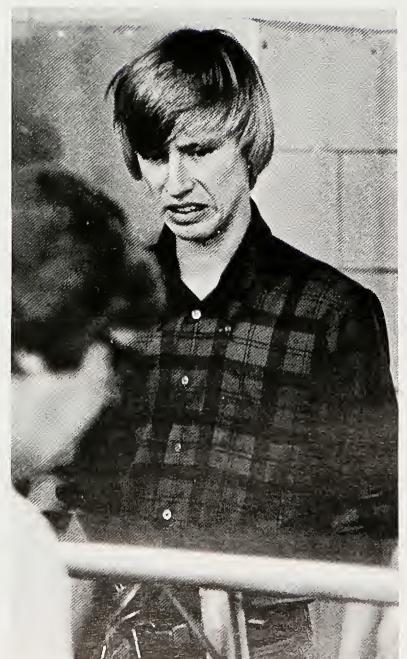

. . . Cindy Lemere

A new day arrived casting a spell of love overall.
I beamed with an enlightened radiance,
as the sun arose,
filling my soul with contented ease.

Silence fills oblivion and the human mind brings sound into the void wisps of thought empty into emptiness as echoes of time fade into Darkness.

Becky, who Oh God, who can I say, This so your has been so great, I don't want leave. Bee, you've a nice friend to have,
 don't forget all those times riding remember what a Sept in

I've been out walking,

I don't do that much talking, these days.

These days.

These days I seem to think a lot about the things that I forgot to do, and all of the time I had the chance to.

I had a lover,

I don't think I'll risk another, these days.

These days.

And if I seem to be afraid, to live the life that I have made in song.

Well, it's just cuz I've been losing so long.

I've quit my scheming,

I don't do all that dreaming, these days.

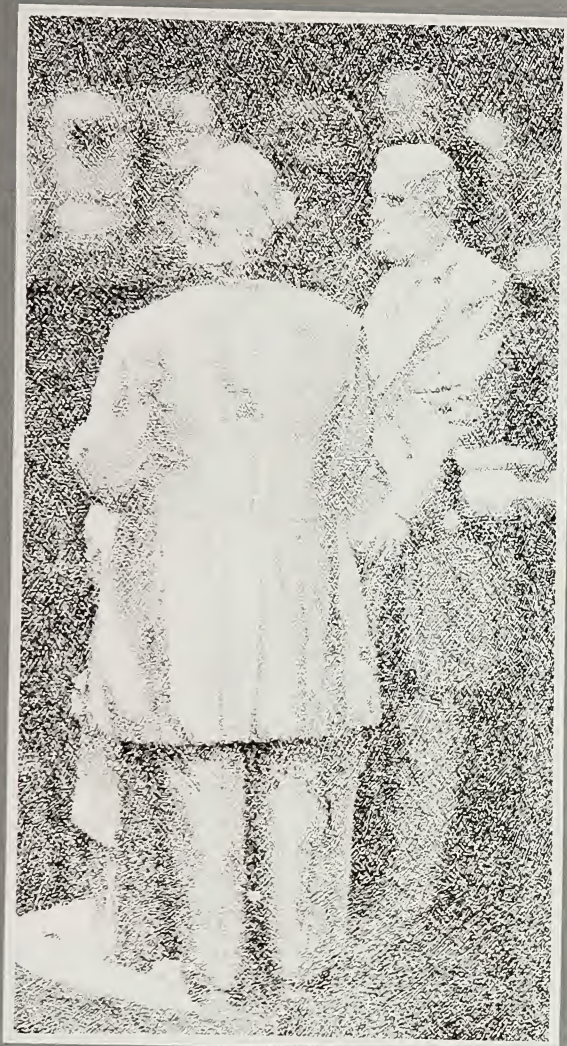

These days.

These days I sit on corner stones and count the time in quarter tones to town.

Don't confront me with my failures,
I've not forgotten them now.

To The Class of 1975:

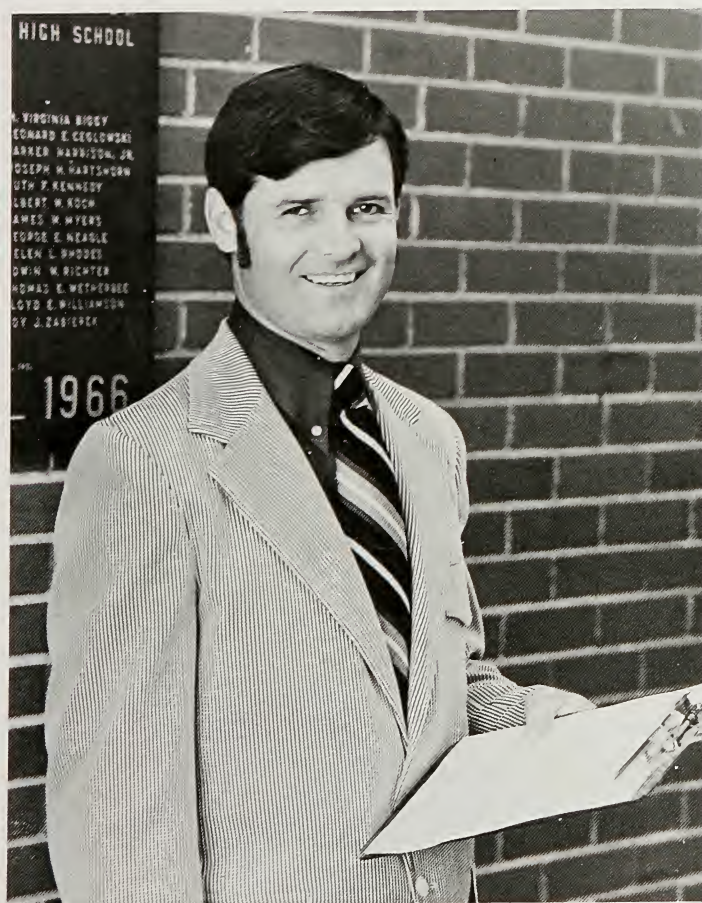

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the talented members of the 1975 graduating class for the many contributions they have rendered to A.B.R.H.S.

On behalf of the entire faculty, I would like to take this opportunity to recognize, and express appreciation for, your imagination, enthusiasm, genuine concern, positive attitudes, and tireless involvement.

We will all remember, with fond admiration, the "Flea Market," the "Book Sale" (History of Acton), the "Powderpuff Football Game", the "Supermarket Lottery", the "Senior Talent Show", the "50's Dance," the Athletic Championships and the great Fine Arts Performances.

Best wishes to all of you. Remember us, the A.B.R.H.S. faculty, and call on us if you ever need help.

Scurrying down the street.

One mature June day,

I heard a tune.

The beautiful, happy, continuing, tune of the merry-go-round.

As I listened,

f r

a g m e n t s

began to piece themselves together In my mind's eye:

*A red balloon held tightly,
by a little girl;*

(wondering)

how it floats.

*Popcorn and candied-apple smells,
and that same little girl;*

(anticipating)

The taste of popcorn and candied-apples.

Rainbow-colored clowns, making jokes, out of the simple mistakes, in (life).

That little girl,

(laughing),

Seeing herself, in the clowns' doings

POP!!

(crying)

The little girl runs,

(somewhere);

with a string,

In her clutched hand.

Then, she stops, smiles,

(looks),

at the string:

(remembers),

How the balloon did look.

Now, each time she (sees) a string, she (remembers):

Her red balloon,

Popcorn and candied-apple smells,

And rainbow-colored clowns.

Just as when,

She hears merry-go-round music,

She thinks of those,

(childhood)

days.

Not lost, but always,

In her . . .

(mind's eye).

love,

Kimmie ☺
keep smiling

*Memories light the corners of my mind, Misty water-colored memories Of the way we were.
Scattered pictures
Of the smiles we left behind;
Smiles we gave to one another For the way we were.
Can it be that it was all so simple then,
Or has time rewritten every line?
If we had the chance to do it all again, Tell me, would we? Could we?
Memories may be beautiful and yet, What's too painful to remember We simply choose to forget.
So it's the laughter we will remember Whenever we remember The way we were.*

A salute to the Blue & Gold from your friends around the corner.

Congratulations to all of you Fighting Colonials.
We would like to wish you all a future of success and happiness. It has been our privilege to serve you. Hope to see you in the future.

Best wishes from

Well Beck
It's been 12 years - I really believe we were finally out! We seem to be far apart at times which is wrong - every time we got good things going for us. Well whatever you can say I hope whatever you decide to do is to do with your life - you do well and enjoy it. I'll never forget riding and the good times we "Good-Luck"
